Fall 2017 Workshops
Graduate Writing Center @ Thunderbird

For questions, please call (602) 978-7255.
For all Graduate Writing Center locations, please visit the University Academic Success Programs website, https://tutoring.asu.edu/graduate.

Writing Tips for Thunderbird Students
As they begin their graduate degree programs, Thunderbird students may have many questions about writing expectations. In this workshop, presenters will discuss English grammar tips, common writing mistakes, and business writing principles.

Date: Friday, August 25, 2017
Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: IBIC Media Room

Brainstorming & Outlining Strategies
Brainstorming and outlining before writing a draft can greatly improve a student’s writing process. In this workshop, students will learn how to effectively brainstorm and outline a paper, presentation, and more!

Date: Friday, September 1, 2017
Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: IBIC Media Room

Reading and Analyzing a Case Study
Want to improve your case study reading and analysis skills? In this workshop, presenters will offer methods for reading and analyzing a case study.

Date: Friday, September 8, 2017
Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: IBIC Media Room
Writing a Case Study Analysis
Want to improve your case study analysis writing skills? In this workshop, presenters will offer methods for drafting, evaluating, and editing a case study analysis.

Date: Friday, September 15, 2017
Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: IBIC Media Room

MLA Style Refresher
In this workshop, students will refresh or update their knowledge of MLA formatting, including how to use popular tools.

Date: Friday, October 27, 2017
Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
Location: IBIC Media Room