University Academic Success Programs
– Polytechnic campus 480-727-1452

UASP offers free tutoring and academic support resources for all enrolled ASU students. UASP uses a peer-to-peer model and hires ASU students who have a 3.5 cumulative GPA.

Subject Area Tutoring

Tutoring is available for a variety of subject areas, including EGR, MAT, PHY, CHM, BIO, and more. Tutors for these subjects are students who have successfully completed the classes they tutor. On the Polytechnic campus tutoring is available in CNTR 160. Use Tutor Search to find specific times that subjects are being tutored.

Hours of Operation:

CNTR 160
- Monday-Thursday: 10am – 8pm
- Friday: 10am-3pm

Century Hall First Floor
- Sunday: 6pm – 10pm
- Tuesday: 8pm-10pm

Writing Center & English Conversation

The Writing Centers are available to students at any stage of the writing process. Writing tutors can help with a variety of writing assignments, including essays, applications, personal statements, lab reports, and more. On the Polytechnic campus the Writing Center is located in CNTR 160. Appointments are highly encouraged. For more information, please call 480-727-1452.

CNTR 160
- Monday-Thursday: 11am – 4pm
- Friday: 11am-3pm
Academic Mentors

Academic Mentors, are trained ASU students who serve as peer mentors to students. Students can meet with AMs to discuss their progress throughout the semester and gain information about organizations and campus events, study tips, organizational skills, and more. Appointments are required and are held in CNTR 160. For more information, please call 480-727-1452.

Supplemental Instruction (SI)

SI is a great way for students to meet, discuss concepts, compare notes, and share study strategies. These structured study sessions are led by SI Leaders. This Fall SI is being offered for CHM 113 and CHM 116.

Adaptive Learning

In the Adaptive Learning Labs, UASP proctors exams for courses offered through ASU’s adaptive learning platform. To schedule a testing appointment or to see appointment times, go online to tutoring.asu.edu/lab.
